ABOUT THE SCHEME

The government of India has introduced its Prime Minister Employment Generation Program to promote self-employment and employment generation. The scheme aims to solve the major challenge of unemployment prevailing in the rural as well as the urban areas of the country. A loan of up to Rs. 50 Lakhs at a margin subsidy of up to 35% or as decided by DIC is provided for the manufacturing sector whereas up to Rs. 20 Lakhs of loan is provided for Service. Here, the ratio of the fixed assets and working capital is decided as 60% and 40% respectively.
